Dear Members and Colleagues,

You are cordially invited to attend the 19th Annual Scientific Meeting of the Hong Kong Society of Interventional and Therapeutic Neuroradiology, taking place on 20–21 December 2025 at the Sheraton Hotel, Hong Kong.

This year's conference will focus on the management of complex aneurysms, alongside a comprehensive program covering other key topics in neurointervention.

Abstract submission for oral presentations is now open. Please submit your abstracts by 28 November 2025, 23:59 via the following link: <https://forms.gle/exSJgB7YXd1qbWqi6>

Please refer to our society website <https://www.hksitn.org.hk/> for further details and updates.

We look forward to your participation.

Best regards,

Billy MH Lai

19th HKSITN ASM Organizing Committee Chairman
